

Putting the Spotlight on your Performance

Key headline facts about the RCA.

How effective is your RCA's activity management planning, procurement and data quality?

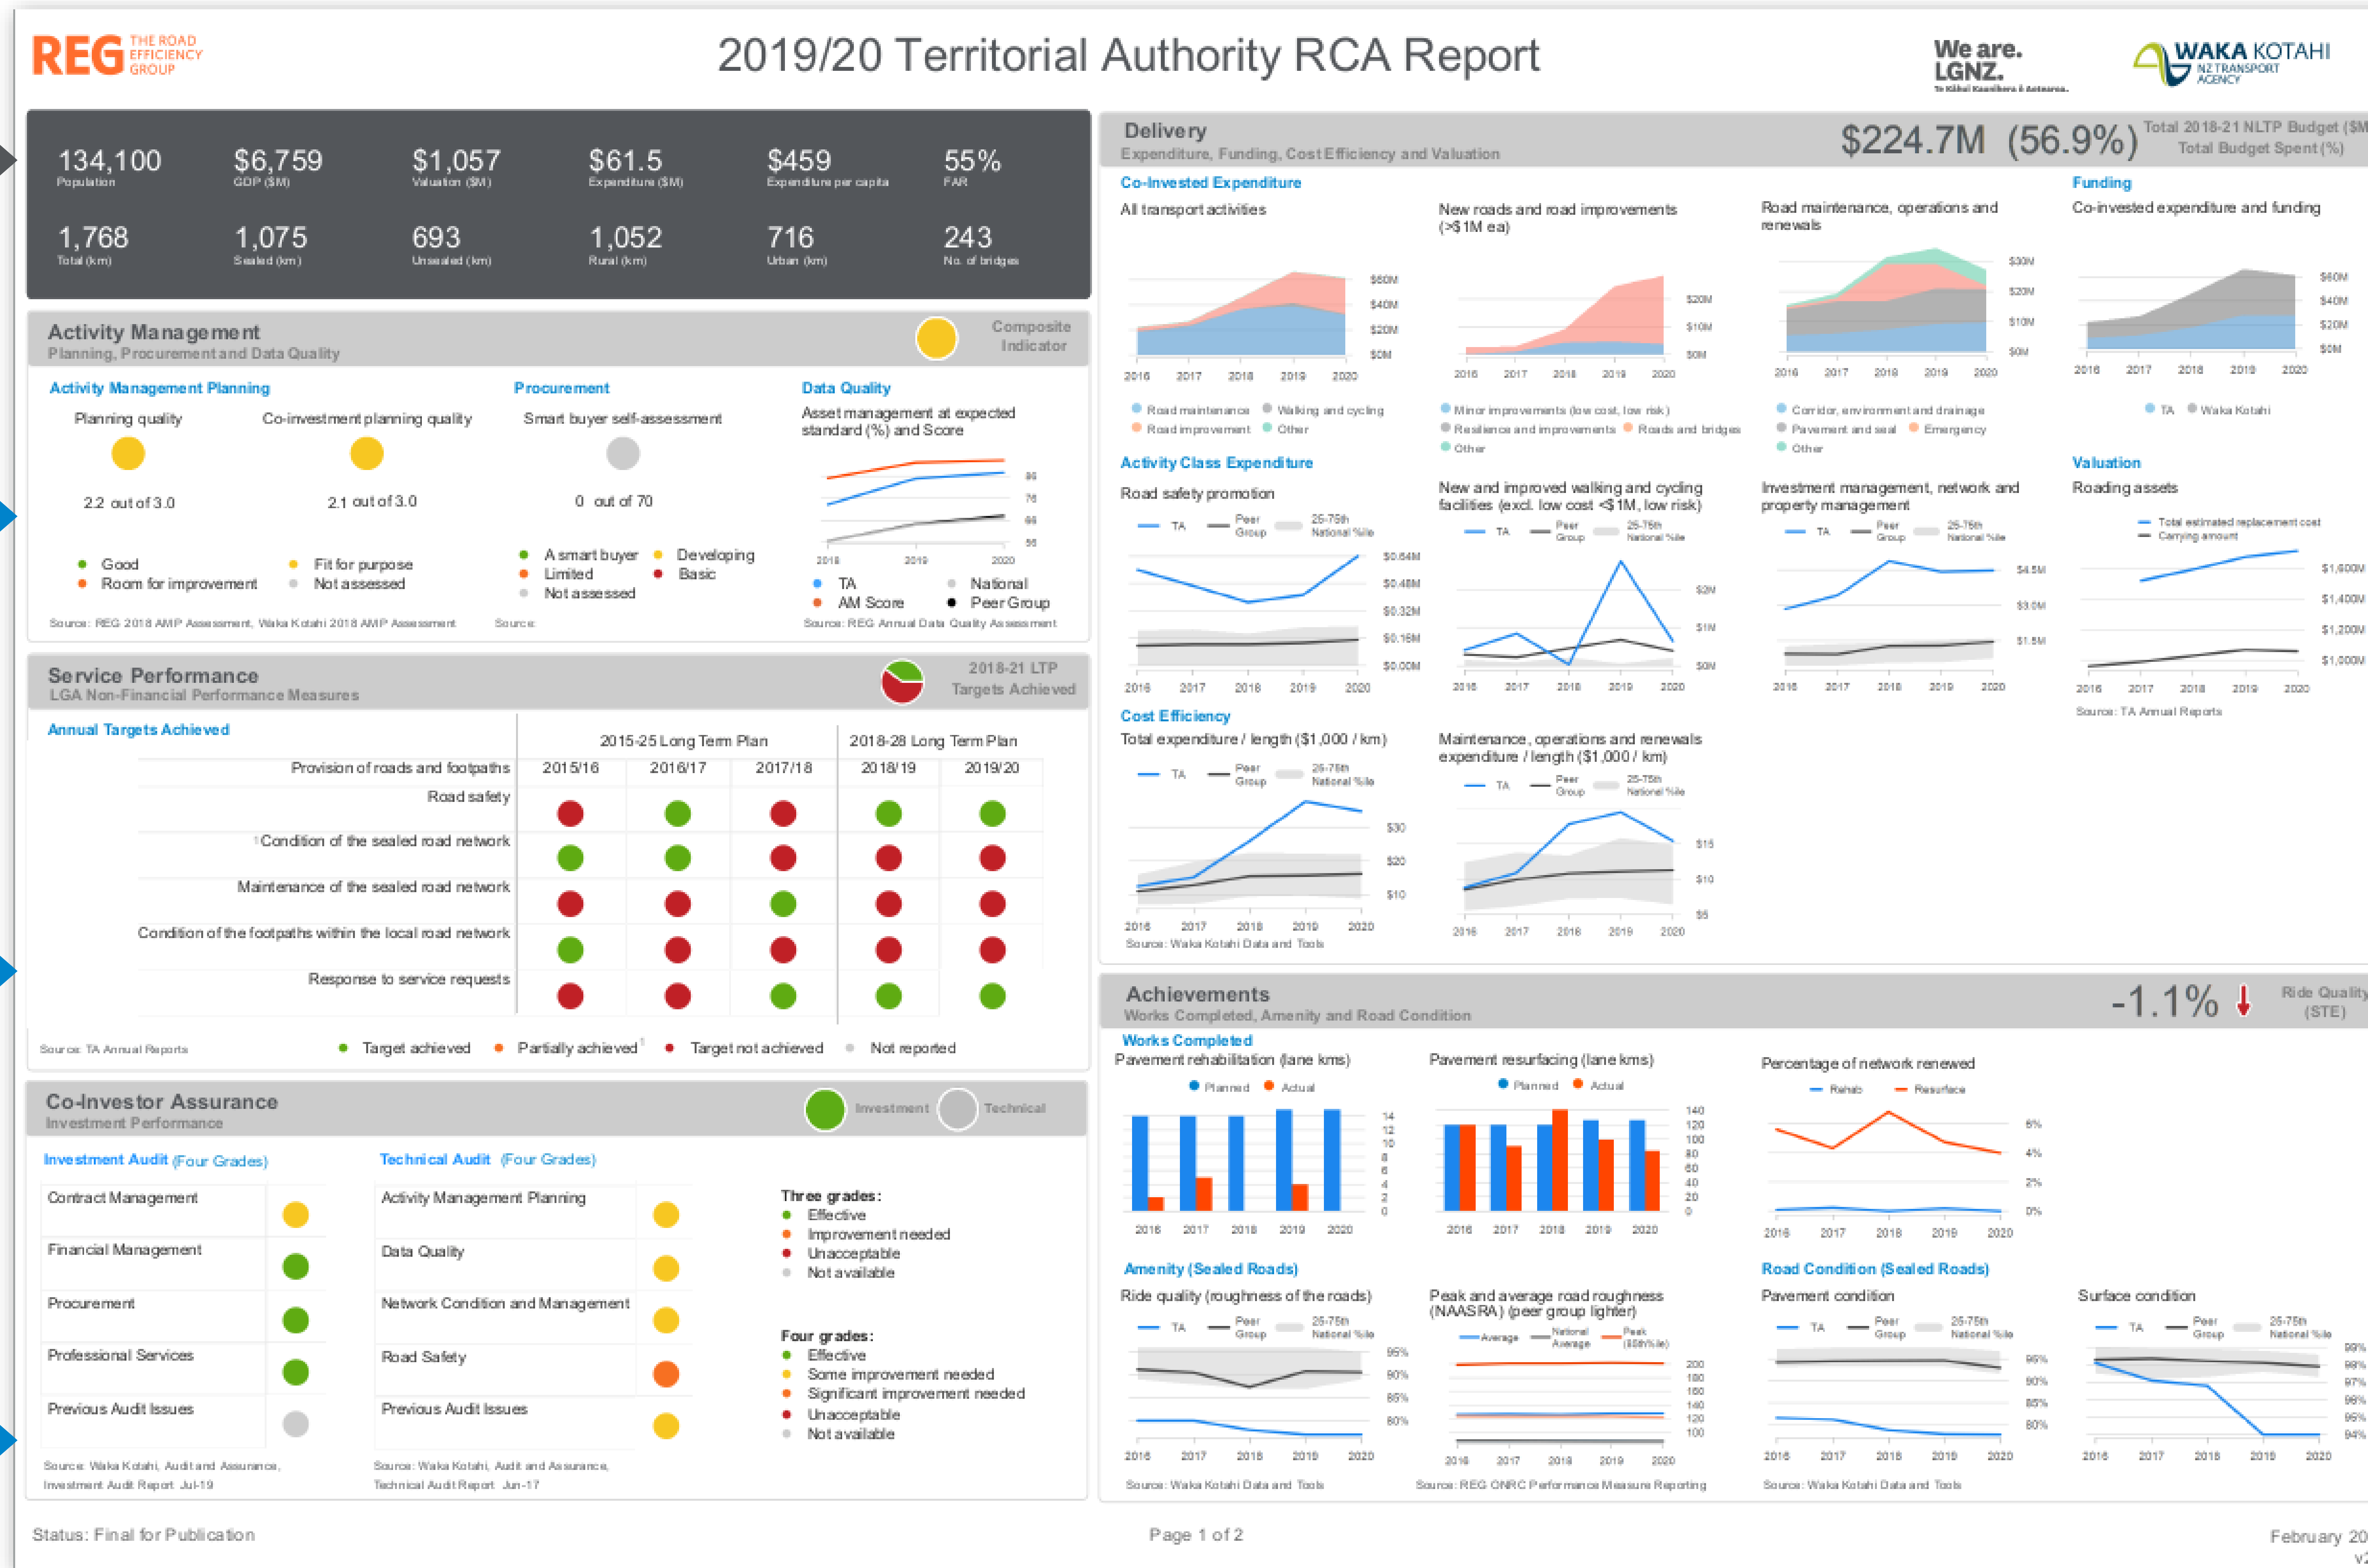

Have you achieved your published Service Performance targets?

Is the co-investor Waka Kotahi satisfied with the RCA's procedures and technical performance?

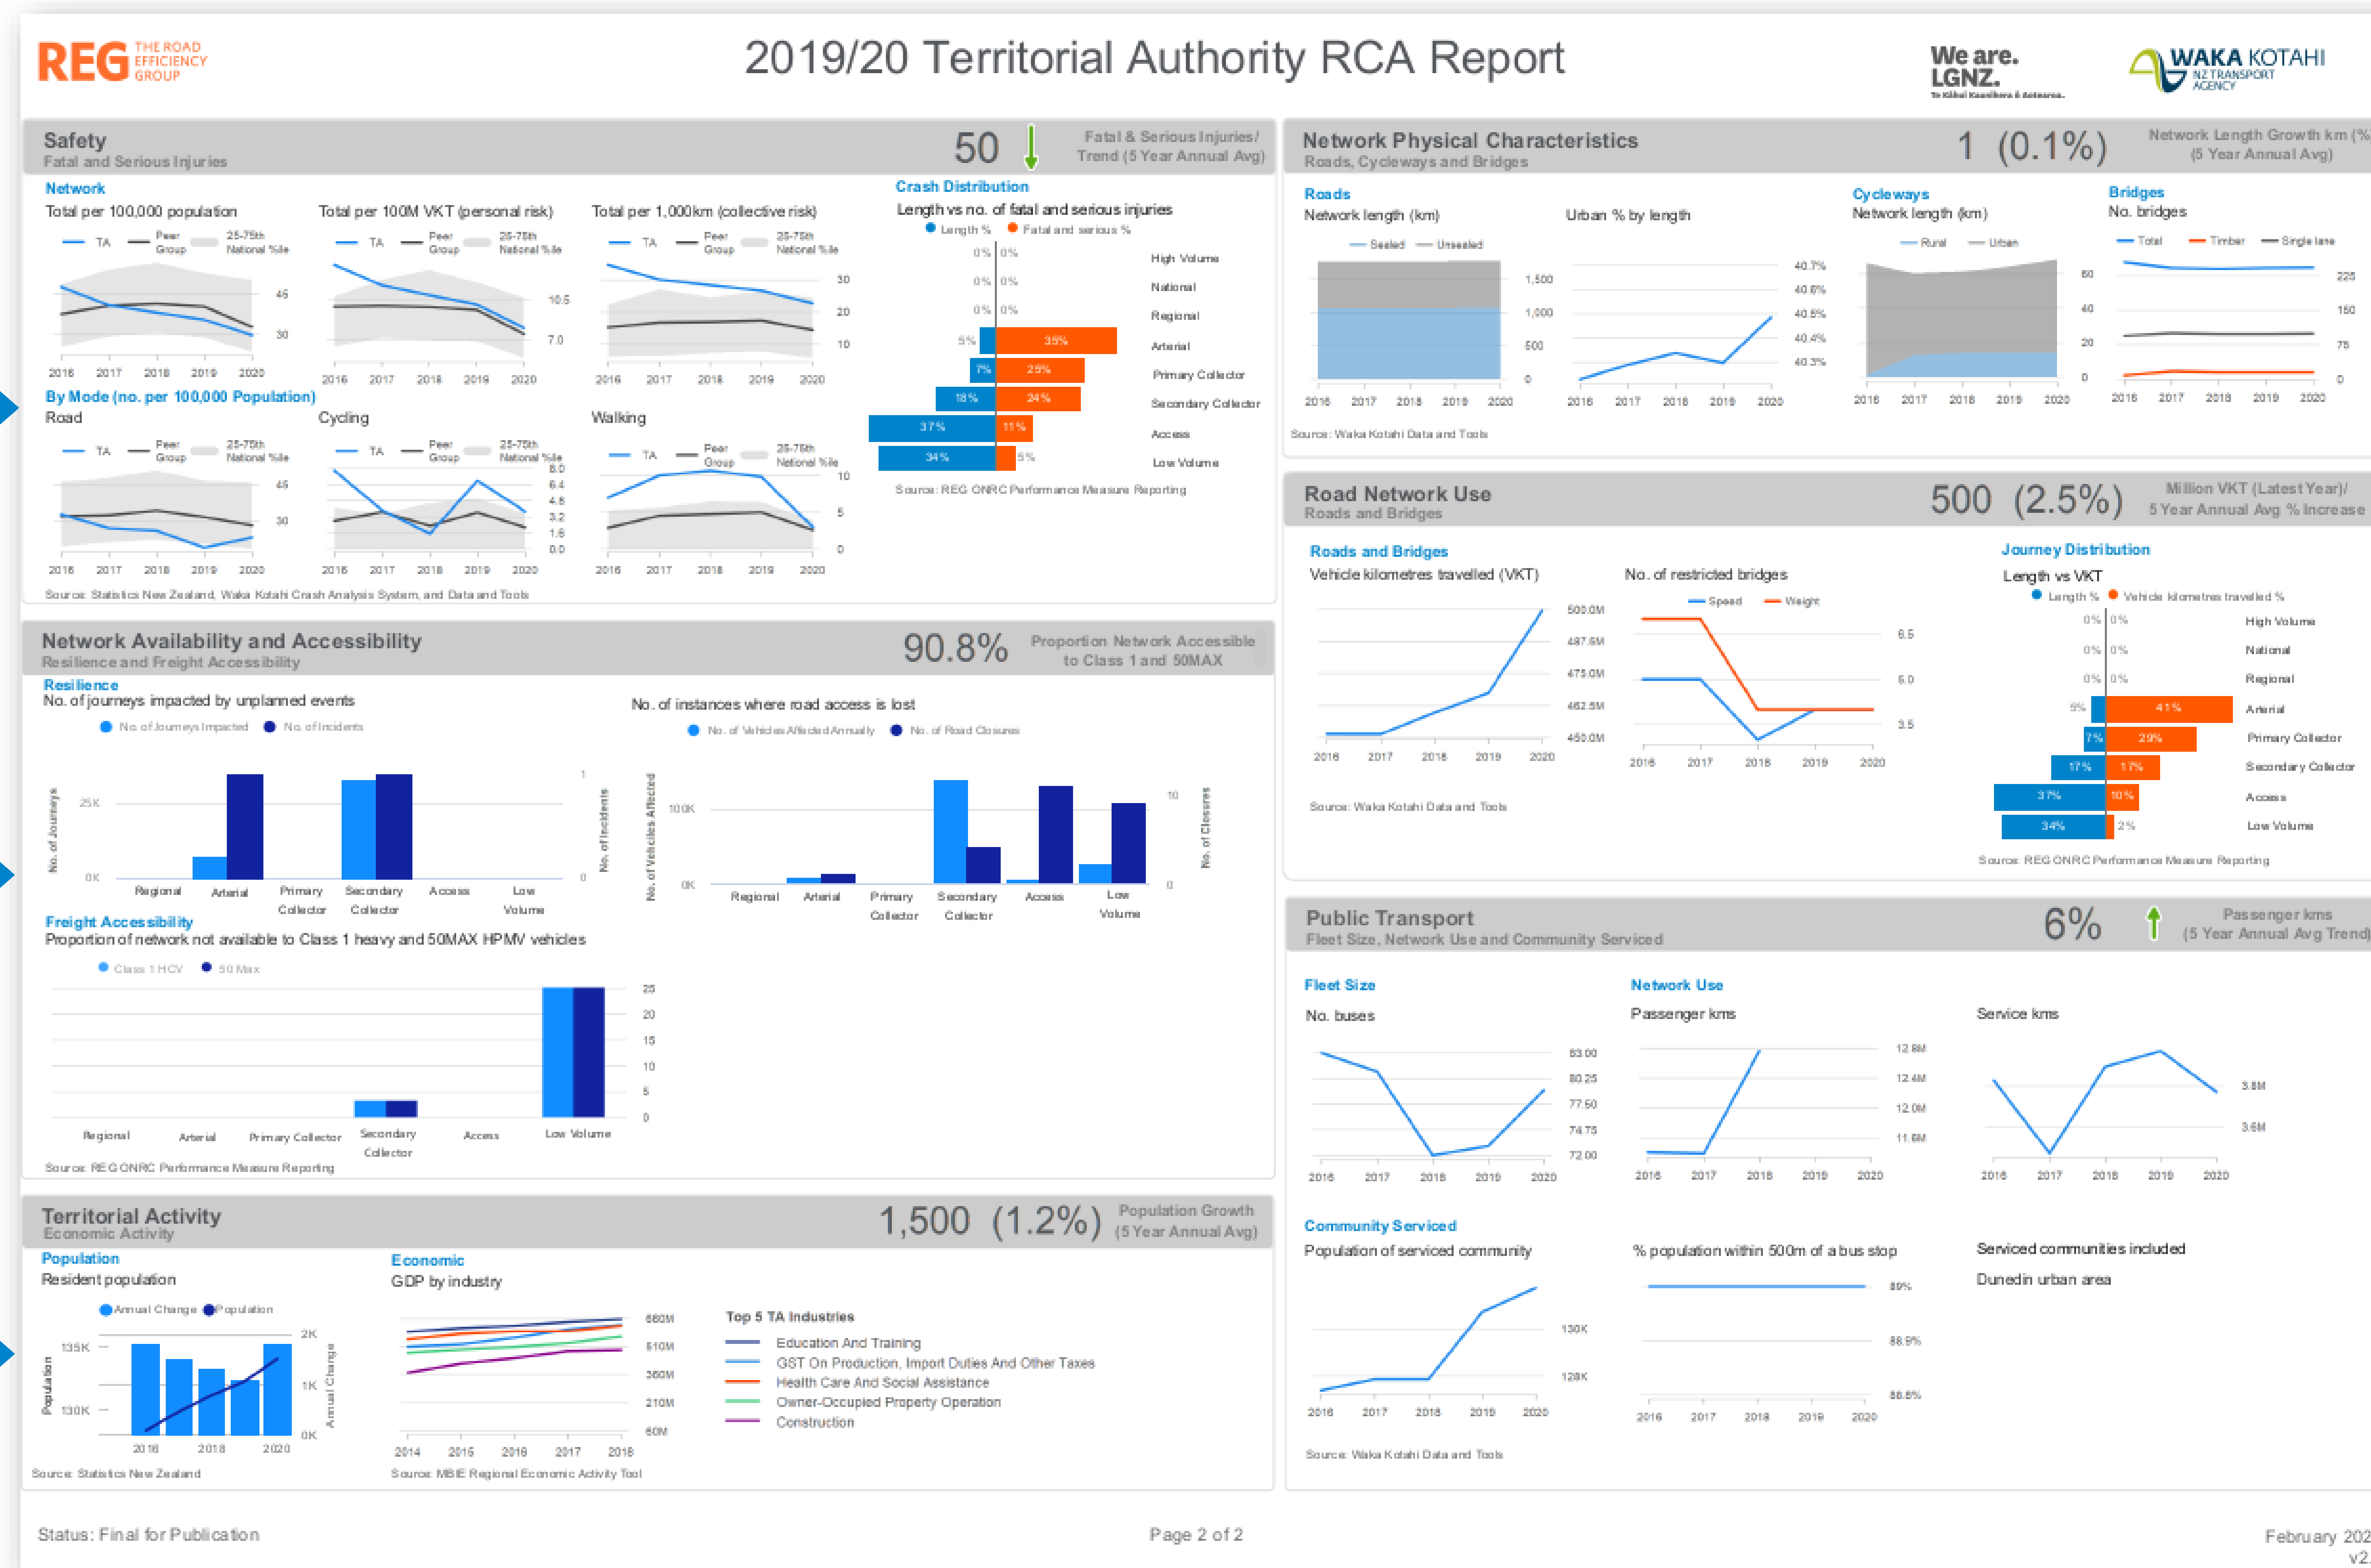

Where has the co-invested programme been spent over the last five years?

Have the planned works been achieved, and how has it affected the road condition?

Page two has information about:
safety, network availability and accessibility, network physical characteristics, road network use, public transport and territorial activity.

Putting the Spotlight on your Performance

How safe is your network and each mode when normalised and compared to your RCA's peers?

How resilient is your network and how accessible is the network for heavy vehicles?

What are the resident population trends and the top industries over the last five years?

What is the length of your road, cycleways and the number of bridges?

What is the extent of travel over the last five years and where are the journeys distributed?

Is the public transport supply and/or demand changing over the last five years?